

JOIN IN A Prayer Vigil TO COMMEMORATE

THE FOURTH ANNUAL

Human Trafficking Awareness Day

When and Where...

Sunday, January 9, 2011

1:00 p.m. —2:00 p.m.

637 Cambridge Street ♦ Brighton, MA, 02135

Outside [and inside] Sisters of St. Joseph Motherhouse

We will gather in Chapel. *

Why? Human Trafficking Awareness Day is January 11

A resolution passed by the US Senate on June 22, 2007 has forever marked January 11th as a day of awareness and vigilance for the countless victims of Human Trafficking across the globe.

In anticipation of this national day of awareness participants are invited to gather outside the Motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Joseph, for a prayer vigil to raise awareness and pray for an end to human trafficking. All who are concerned about human trafficking are invited to join in this prayer vigil which is coordinated by the Anti-Trafficking Coalition of the Leadership Conference of Women Religious [LCWR] – Boston Unit.

Roman Catholic women religious have been key leaders in the national and international movement to stop human trafficking. In the past two years the Boston area ATC has sponsored two symposia attended by well over 200 participants who want to be part of the initiative to end this crime against humanity. Another symposium addressing the issue of Human Trafficking is planned for April, 2011.

* THE PRAYER VIGIL IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

THOSE UNABLE TO PROCESS OUTSIDE ARE INVITED TO REMAIN IN CHAPEL.

How?

No registration is needed.

We will gather in the Chapel shortly before 1:00 p.m.

If you have questions, please call Rosemary Hanlon at 617.746.2029